SHIPS FOR THE SUGAR

Making Up the Fleet to Carry Hawaii's Product.

Vessels That Have Been Chartered—Trust Beginning to Express Doubts as to Capacity.

San Francisco, December 15.— The sugar trust has not yet solved the problem how to get its sugar from Hawaii to New York. The islands having been annexed, it is expected that the same laws applying to trade between domestic ports shall obtain between Hawaii and the United States. This means that no foreign bottoms can carry Hawaiian sugar to America. For the sugar carrying to this port there are packets in plenty to carry it. Regular sailing lines are maintained between here and Honolulu, Kahului and other island ports the year round.
But to secure American ships for the voyage around the Horn is another question. Thus far the following American ships have been chartered:

W F Babcock, St Francis, Will-scott, Edward O'Brien, E M Phelps, Tillie E Starbuck, Iroquois, St Katherine, Nuanu, S D Carleton, A J Fuller, Henry B
Hyde, George B Skolfield, S P Hitchcock, Aryan and the I F Chapman.

The product of Hawaii for the season of 1899 is estimated at 260,000 tons. To transport one-half this tonnage to New York will require at least twice the number of ships at present under charter. Agents of the plantations at this port express confidence in their ability to get the required tonnage before the season ends. The big American ship Shenandoah, one of the largest carriers in the world, is in port and available, but she is about all that is left here. The W H Starbuck, which was burned at sea last month, was under charter to proceed from Newcastle, N S W, to Honolulu and there load coal for New York.

CHILLINGWORTH-STRATEMEYER.

Wedding in St. Andrew's Cathedral Christmas Eve.

Charles Chillingworth, Second Deputy Marshal, and Miss Mary Stratemeier, eldest daughter of Port Surveyor Stratemeier, were married in St. Andrew's Cathedral on Christmas eve, the Rev. V. H.
Kiteat officiating.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Chillingworth, sister of the groom, while the best man was A. L. C. Atkinson, and the ushers, Messrs. E. Stiles and Lionel Hart.
The bride was given away by her father.

After the ceremony was finished the newly married couple went to their future home on Emma street, where a reception to a large number of invited friends was held.

Tomorrow James F. Morgan will sell by public auction the household furniture of the Sanders residence on Nuanu street.

BISHOP MUSEUM REPORT

Great Things Accomplished and Still More Promised.

Kilauea in Eruption and Other Exhibits for Hawaii Annex—Initial Publication Attracts Worldwide Notice.

The annual account of the trusttees of the Bernice P. Bishop Museum has been filed by Henry Holmes, trustee and treasurer.
Receipts are $86,649.32; expenditures, $76,858.28; balance, $9,791.04.

The report of the trustees accompanying the account contains some interesting items. The record of the year ending October 12, 1898, "has been one of steady advancement rather than one of marked changes."

Mr. W. T. Brigham, who had resigned his position as Curator, was reappointed Director, and "has rendered most efficient and admirable service in caring for the collections and in planning for additions to them."

Among articles added are a large collection of corals from the Australian Barrier Reef, purchased from Mr. Ward of Rochester, N. Y., and a papier mache model of a giant octopus from the North Pacific.

Visitors have exceeded in number those of any former year, largely due to the United States soldiers en route to Manila, the tabulated number being 7089.

A taxidermist, Mr. H. Denslow, has been engaged but has not yet arrived. There is work enough to keep him busy for a whole year in material stored away.

The publication of papers began with a report from the Director of his tour around the world, which has been received with expressions of high appreciation in every country to which it has been sent. Others have asked for copies, and requested to be put on the museum's list of exchanges.
A printer has been employed, and the typesetting is done at the museum. Other publications contemplated were mentioned at the meeting of the Hawaiian Historical Society previously reported in this paper.

Mention is made of the beginning of work on the Hawaiian Annex. "It is hoped that Dowager Queen Kapiolani will add her large collection to the present rich treasures in the care of the museum trustees, and the relics of royalty, so-called, received from the Government by the recent act of the Legislature will receive a prominent place. On the ground floor will be a large model of an old Hawaiian homestead with its six separate buildings; also of a heiau, copy of one in Puna; and a model from measurements and photographs of the Volcano of Kilauea, as it appears when in a state of eruption." Mr. Hutchin-son's sculptured models of Hawaiians engaged in various occupations will also be exhibited.

Valuable additions have been made to the library, especially in the department of conchology, which will be of great service whenever the contemplated Marine Aquarium and Biological Laboratory shall have been built in the Marine park at the entrance of the harbor.

The trustees have contributed liberally toward the forthcoming publication in London, by the committee of the British Association, of the results of the recent researches by Mr. R. C. L. Perkins in the Fauna of the Hawaiian archipelago. Some 1400 specimens of insects, 1000 of them new and hitherto unnamed species, have been received from Mr. Perkins, classified, mounted and named, and will be ready for exhibition upon the completion of the Annex.

The author of the report, who signs it, is Rev. C. M. Hyde, D.D., one of the trustees and secretary.

McKINLEY AT ATLANTA

He Asks Who Will Haul Down the American Flag.

Big Ovation Given Him—Stirring Speech on Expansion and American Responsibilities.

Atlanta (Ga.), December 15.—
The President has no nerves.
That is one of the secrets of his success in a public career. After hours of parading, bowing, speechmaking, handshaking and the general toil of making himself agreeable, he turns up in the banqueting hall tonight as fresh and serene as if his day had been passed in seclusion and quiet.

Atlanta has spread herself every-way, and President McKinley can make no complaint about the reception. It has been respectful and cordial. His office has been honored, and he, personally, has met with every proper mark of consideration.

"In the course of his address the President said: "That flag has been planted in two hemispheres and there it remains, the symbol of liberty and law, of peace and progress. Who will withdraw it from the people over whom it floats in protecting folds?
Who will haul it down?"

We could have avoided all the difficulties that came across the pathway of the nation if a few months ago we had coldly ignored the piteous appeals of the starving and oppressed inhabitants of Cuba.

If we had blinded ourselves to the conditions so near our shores and turned a deaf ear to our suffering neighbors the issue of territorial expansion in the Antilles and the East Indies would not have happened.

But could we have justified such a course? Is there any one who would declare another to have been the better course? With less humanity and less courage on our part the Spanish flag, instead of the Stars and Stripes, would still be floating over Cavite, at Ponce and at Santiago, and a "chance in the race of life" would be wanting to millions of human beings who today call this Nation noble, and who, I trust, will live to call it blessed.

Thus far we have done our supreme duty. Shall we now, when the victory is won in war, is written in the treaty of peace and the civilized world applauds and waits in expectation, turn them idly away from the duties imposed upon the country by its own great deeds?

Another Tin of Opium.

P. J. Howard of the Australia working force was arrested by officers Hubbel and Bashaw last night. He was in a drunken condition and the officers all but carried him to the station house.
When searched there it was found that Howard had a tin of opium secreted in his clothes. The charge was changed from drunk-ness to unlawful possession of opium. The officers were of course delighted at their good luck.

Labor Federation and Expansion.

Kansas City (Mo.), December 15.—At its annual convention today the American Federation of Labor declared, by almost a uni-mous vote, against a standing army in the United States, which is in reality recognized as a por-test against expansion, or the spirit of imperialism, as it was termed by the delegates. This action was taken after five hours of debate on every phase of the question.

Senator Brice Dead.

New York, December 15.— Former United States Senator Calvin S. Brice died at 3:15 o'clock today at his residence in this city, of pneumonia. He contracted a severe cold a week ago today.

ITALIAN CRUISER ETNA

Arrival of Man-of-war After Rough Trip.

Will Sail for Samoa or Fiji in Week or Ten Days—Has 300 Men and Twenty Officers.

The Italian cruiser Etna, which sailed from San Francisco December 16, arrived in port this forenoon and anchored in naval row near the lighthouse. The Etna had ten days of the very roughest kind of weather and the officers and men are very glad to get here.

As to her future movements, there is nothing very certain at the present time. At all events, she will remain here for a week or ten days and will then proceed, either to Samoa or Fiji. From there, she may go on to Australia.

The Etna arrived in San Francisco during the early part of November. She went on the dry dock at Mare Island and remained there for some time getting cleaned. Before arriving in San Francisco, the Etna had started from Italy, called at Madeira, cruised along the coast of South America visiting various important points and gone through the Straits of Magellan, making from there for various ports, the last of which was San Francisco.

The Etna has a complement of 300 men and 20 officers. Her armament consist of the following: 2 10-inch and 6 6-inch guns, 5 Nordenfeldt rapid fire and 4 Hotchkiss guns. Her dimensions are as follows: Length over all, 88 meters; width 13 meters; depth of hold 6 meters and 2 centimeters. Her tonnage is 3500 tons her horse power, 7000 and her speed 17 1/2 knots.

The Etna's officers are as follows:

Capitano di Vajcello, Cavaliere Giovanni Giovello, Commander.
Capitano di Corvetta, Cavaliere Stanislav Loreichio, second in command.

Angelo Frank, First Lieutenant; Guglielmo Giamelli, Second Lieutenant; Ernesto Di Loreto; Third Lieutenant Giuseppe Monroy, Fourth Lieutenant; and Guido Scelsi, fifth Lieutenant.
Ettore Colletti and Federico Cajtracane sub-lieutenants.

Lorenjo Gandolfo, Domenico Visco, Gaetano Pejce, Francesco Paggi and Francesco De Orestia, midshipmen.

Gaetano Montaldo, Chief Engineer; Giuseppe Penjo, Second Engineer; Raffaele Pajena, Third Engineer; Eugenio Verregnassi, Fourth Engineer.

Angelo Caforio, Surgeon.
Cavaliere Luigi Tommetti, Paymaster.

When the Etna reached the entrance to the channel, she saluted the American flag with twenty-one guns. In the meantime there was a hurried consultation going on at the Executive Building. The shore battery could not respond. The men who were wont to fire the guns during the days of the Republic were far away and the gun had not been cleaned since the last time they were used.

Captain Taussig of the Bennington was communicated with and, in a little while, word came that the Bennington would fire the salute for the port so when the Etna came to an anchor, the Italian flag went up and a salute of twenty-one guns boomed out over the waters. Shortly after this, Captain Taussig made his official call aboard the Etna.

Pleasant Surprise Party.

There was a very enjoyable surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. May, Makiki, last night, in honor of Mrs. May.
There were a large number of people present and the surprise was as complete as it was enjoyable. The ever hospitable host and hostess did everything in their power to pleasantly entertain their guests.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

It was for ten days that Geo. A.
Davis the attorney was sentenced to be imprisoned by Judge Perry for contempt of court. Mr. Davis on being committed Saturday afternoon petitioned the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus.
In reply the following "order" was filed this morning, endorsed on the petition:

"Upon reading the within petition of Geo. A. Davis for a writ of habeas corpus together with the copies of the several mittimus thereto annexed under which the petitioner avers he is imprisoned and restrained of his liberty, I decline to allow the writ prayed for to issue, for the reason that the petition contains matter s impertinent and irrelevant and because upon the face of the said mittimus it appears that they were issued by a Circuit Judge at Chambers who has the authority and jurisdiction by statute to issue the same.

"A. F. JUDD,

"Chief Justice Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands.

"December 26, 1898."

A. S. Humphreys, whose firm was of counsel for plaintiff with Mr. Davis in the case of F. F.
Porter vs. The Hawaiian Pork and Packing Co., has written a letter to Judge Perry, asking in it that it be placed on file. He says he was not consulted in reference to the bill of exceptions filed by the plaintiff. This is the document whose language got Mr.
Davis into the first trouble, Judge Perry ordering it struck from the files and its author fined $50 for contempt. Mr. Humphreys goes on to say to Judge Perry:

"I do not concur in any of the statements which have been made in the bill of exceptions in regard to your conduct at the trial of said case and in the subsequent proceedings therein, and I sincerely regret that it has been called in question. I also regret that remarks made by me in the heat of argument—without deliberation, about opposing counsel, for whose ability and high sense of professional propriety I entertain the greatest respect—should now be perpetuated in the files of the Court."

Associate Justice Whiting this morning issued a writ of habeas corpus, ordering Mr. Davis to be produced before him at 10 a. m. tomorrow.
